

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Odd Fellows meet this evening. J. C. Dyer is adding to his residence on Van Buren street.

Superintendent Bradstreet forwarded yesterday to the Phoenix Mine 40,000 pounds of mill material and supplies.

In the District Court yesterday was heard the testimony of seventeen witnesses on the part of the north side ditches.

Mr. and Mrs. Peralta mourn the loss of their son Bernal, two years of age. The death occurred last night at 7 o'clock.

The Mesa and Stringtown mines played a match game of baseball at Mesa July 24. The Mesas were downed, with the score at 8 to 4.

Leandro Ymperial, who was arrested yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly, was given, by Recorder Schwartz, apartments in the City hotel for ten days.

The Marlow estate will today appear again before Probate Judge Baxter. There are objections to be heard, raised by each administrator against the form of the other's bond.

Crenshaw says that all the Democratic candidates for treasurer are lounging around his office with an air of proprietorship and are trying every chair therein with a view of selecting the most comfortable.

Marshal Blankenship had one of the corner posts of the plaza hit him about the sixth rib last night, as he rushed out in answer to the call of a police whistle. Billy is rather sore yet from the effects of the collision.

Clerk Alexander, assisted by Guss Hirshfield, is now engaged in making up the duplicate assessment roll of Maricopa county. A compilation of the totals of the roll is also being made, for submission to the Territorial Board of Equalization.

Juan Encinas was arrested yesterday on a charge of battery preferred by his wife. She stated in her complaint that Juan, in a drunken rage, Thursday evening, had severely bitten her upon the arm. The trial will take place this morning before Justice Sherman.

George Hamlin hears encouraging reports from the Juniper mine, in the Yarnell group, located on Antelope Hill, seven miles from Stanton. Dunlap & Dunbar, who have a year's bond on the property at $40,000, have a force of twelve men at work. They are now about sixty feet into the ledge with a tunnel. The ore body is fully eighty-five feet in width, and much of it assays as high as $12.50 per ton in gold. The ore is free milling and easy of access.

H. M. Cone, a freighter in the employ of the Phoenix mine, loaded up his wagons at Minor's ice factory with machinery yesterday afternoon, and in the work it is supposed, overheated himself. He drove into the city and when near Lount's ice factory, on Washington street, fell back upon his load in a faint. His son, who was with him, summoned assistance and had him carried into the house of a friend near by. Dr. Stern was called in and soon brought the man back to consciousness. He is now resting easily at Judge Hawley's residence.

PERSONALS.

Mayor McGlasson is expected here on Monday.

H. Lempe left yesterday for the Congress mine.

Elmer Patton and wife are spending a few weeks in Prescott.

Thompson and David Walker were in the city yesterday from Tempe.

C. W. Dowsing, for many months a clerk with Ellis & Brown, leaves this morning for San Diego.

Joseph Campbell was able to leave his bed yesterday and may be able to come down town today. Mrs. Campbell is about recovered.

Colonel William Herring arrived by yesterday's train, and will be found guarding the interests of his clients in the District Court today.

Democratic candidates are sprouting. Pat Coyle is out for County Recorder and Tom Greenhaw will try conclusions with Frank Baxter for the nomination of Probate Judge.

Among those noticed as present at the funeral of General Fremont, in New York, by the press of New York, was William Zeckendorf, one of our commissioners to the World's Fair, who represented the pioneers of Arizona.

JOHNNIE BEHAN AGAIN.

He still hankers after the Prison Superintendent's salary.

John H. Behan, ex-superintendent of the Territorial Prison, is again in the courts.

His attorneys, Barnes and Goodrich, yesterday filed with the Clerk of the District Court an application for an injunction to issue against Territorial Treasurer John Y. T. Smith, or his agents, forbidding said official to pay to S. F. Ingalls the sum of $2250, claimed by each as salary due for services in said office for the nine months ending July 1, 1890.

The hearing of the motion has been set for Monday next; in the meantime a temporary restraining order has been issued.

The French crops are practically a failure, and the price of bread is rising.
